Please search any reply letter containing the phrase "不屬於本處的職權範圍"

You · 05-21 15:41:16

Based on the provided document context, I can identify that Document 1 contains a reply letter from the Land Registration Office (LANDREG/HKSARG) to Ms. Chan. The letter explicitly states the phrase "不屬於本處的職權範圍" (does not fall within the purview of this office). This phrase is used in the context of declining to provide opinions or assistance regarding matters outside their jurisdiction.

Document Details:

Title: Reply letter (Chin)

Pages: Page 1

The document indicates that the Land Registration Office handles registration of documents affecting land and provides public services for 查閱土地紀錄 (viewing land records). However, they explicitly state that they cannot assist with matters outside their jurisdiction, which is clearly articulated by the phrase in question.

Can an owners' corporation still be formed if there are not enough members to meet the criteria set down in the BMO? Please find a similar case.

You - 05-21 15:58:24

Based on the retrieved document context, there is no direct case that answers whether an owners' corporation can be formed if there are not enough members to meet the criteria set down in the Building Management Ordinance (BMO). However, Document 2 discusses a scenario where the number of MC members fell below the statutory requirement under para. 1(1)(b) of Schedule 2 to the BMO, leading to the rejection of an application due to insufficient members. This suggests that if the number of members does not meet the criteria, the formation of the owners' corporation may be hindered.

For a definitive answer or similar case, additional information would be needed from other documents or sources outside the provided context.

I am processing a filing application but none of the flats of the building was registered under the name of the appointed member when the owners' meeting was held. Please locate a similar case.

You - 05-21 15:59:39

Based on the retrieved documents, Document 1 provides a similar case where a company was appointed as one of the 7 MC members in an owner's meeting held on 19 May 2014. However, the Assignment in favor of that company was made on 9 May 2014 but only lodged for registration on 30 May 2014. As a result, the company was not registered as an owner under the Land Register on the date of appointment. Legal advice concluded that the company was ineligible to be appointed as a member since it did not appear in the land register on the date of the meeting to qualify as an "owner" within the meaning of Section 2 of the BMO.

Find a case which calls for follow-up action (i.e. add internal warning against automatic conversion under the Land Titles Ordinance (LTO) in relevant land register for implementation of title registration in Land Registry (LR).

You · 05-21 16:03:19

Based on the retrieved documents, there is no case explicitly calling for follow-up action that adds an internal warning against automatic conversion under the Land Titles Ordinance (LTO) in relevant land registers for implementing title registration in the Land Registry (LR). The most relevant document is Document 2, which discusses the implementation of the title registration system on newly granted land first and mentions concerns about property fraud, but it does not provide a specific case requiring such an internal warning. Therefore, I cannot find enough evidence in the documents to answer this question fully.

AI Assistant

New Session

Find previous legal advice cases related to the Chinese address creation of new register. Please list the most relevant ones with their key points summarized briefly.

You - 05-21 18:18:20

Based on the provided documents, I can identify two relevant cases related to the creation of new registers in Hong Kong:

1. Document 3: Request from [REDACTED] regarding the Land Register (Flat 2 on 6th Floor (Block A) & Car Parking Space No. 69, Villa Monte Rosa)

- Summary: This case involves updating a land register to remove reference to a car parking space (No. 69). The request was made in December 2011 due to concerns about the separate registration of properties without undivided shares. The Land Registry considered opening a new no-share register for the car parking space under special circumstances, but emphasized that this would not set a precedent and future cases would be evaluated individually.
- Key Points:
 - Creation of registers for appurtenant rights with no undivided share allocation requires legal advice (guideline from 1994).
 - There are about 200 car parking spaces without individual registers in the development, embedded within "Flat" registers.
 - The case highlights challenges in maintaining separate registers for properties like car parking spaces.

2. Document 1: Follow-up actions regarding Misaid Deeds with Memorial Despatched from RTO (One Kowloon Office) to DLU on 20.2.2023

- Summary: This case deals with mislaid deeds and the despatch of memorials from the Registration and Titles Office (RTO) to the Deeds Lodgement Unit (DLU). It discusses the issuance of a memo seeking agreement from Lands Department (LandsD) regarding the handling of such cases.
- Key Points:
 - Legal advice was provided on how to handle the case, including opening land registers for Conditions of Exchange (CoE).
 - The memo proposed proceeding with the case unless LandsD objected, suggesting a proactive approach by the Land Registry.

Missing Information: There is no direct mention of legal advice cases specifically related to the "address creation of new register" as requested. However, Document 3 provides insights into creating registers for properties without undivided shares, which may be relevant depending on the specifics of the address-related issue.

If you are referring to a specific type of address or property registration process under the Chinese legal framework, further clarification or additional documents would be needed to provide a more precise answer.

Using LR 39_218_1996 L_M 7 ALL, please give a brief summary of the case.

You - 05-21 16:20:20

Based on Document 1, LR 39/218/96 L/M 7 pertains to an Assignment (M/N 2079048) where a discrepancy was found in the premises description of a microfilm copy. The solicitors noted that "Flat H" was incorrectly listed as "Flat A" and requested correction under Regulation 20 of the Land Registration Regulations.

Key points:

- Issue: Incorrect premises description ("Flat A" instead of "Flat H") in the microfilm copy.
- Request: Correction via Regulation 20, but the Land Registry ruled it inapplicable.
- Timeline:
 - Error discovered: June 7, 1996
 - Priority request by solicitors for amendment by June 12, 1996

Regulatory Context:

- The copy instrument was not an exact duplicate of the original deed.
- Correction options included registering a statutory declaration to alert searchers.

This case primarily deals with property registration and correction procedures under Hong Kong's Land Registration Regulations.
